

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

You are very special and you deserve the best, but all I can give you are wishes and not the rest.

You've changed a lot over the years, but you're still the same pleasant and kind person you always have been.

Celebrate your birthday today, because it's the beginning of all the great things, which are about to come.

Do you know what takes a lot to become? A great person like you are.
